

become: to become angry / cold / difficult / easy; to become a doctor / a lawyer / a pilot; to become a habit get: to get dark / late / lazy / old / tired / wet grow: to grow cold / dark / old / stormy; to grow fond of turn: to turn pale / red / green / black; to turn Muslim / Buddhist / Christian go: to go blind / mad; to go pale / red / green / black; to go mouldy / off / sour

Complete the following sentences with verbs 'become', 'get', 'grow', 'turn' or 'go' in the correct form.

1. When the truth came out, Tom red with shame.
2. Minute after minute, I was more and more tired.
3. Josh dreams of a fireman when he grows up.
4. Look at Celine. She must be very cold. She has blue all over her face.
5. You can feel that spring is coming in the air and the days are gradually longer and longer.
6. As he older, his movements more awkward.
7. Don't drink this milk. It smells. It's off.
8. It is late. We had better get a move on if we don't want to miss our plane to Chicago.
9. Andrea appears to have more impolite since the last time I spoke to her.
10. As had been forecast, the night dark and stormy.
11. Like his father, John has also a faithful fan of football.
12. When autumn comes, the leaves on the trees red, yellow and brown.
13. Your father will certainly mad when he finds out you have scratched his car.
14. What will of us after death? Merely ash and dust.
15. We have to do something immediately. The problem of growing unemployment is acute.

16. The more questions he asked, the more suspicious the detective
17. Mark green with envy when he saw my brand new Mercedes.
18. Getting up early in the morning and doing yoga has my habit.
19. Be careful not to hurt. The blade of the scythe is very sharp.
20. After the unsuccessful treatment, the patient completely blind.
21. We must start economising. We're short of money.
22. The cheese is not fit for eating. It's mouldy.
23. The children very excited when we told them about the school trip.
24. It looks like rain. It's cloudy.
25. The poor man berserk when he learned how much money he had lost.
26. I hope that Joe and I will good friends.
27. All people are bound to old.
28. Your jumper is tattered at the edges.
29. After a few months of practice, Alan has into a good worker.
30. Sarah red in the face when I said I was deeply in love with her.

bloom: flowers / plants / roses / daffodils bloom; the desert blooms after rain;
in full bloom;

blossom: trees / shrubs blossom; the construction industry / computer technology blossoms; in full blossom; to blossom out;

flower: roses / pansies / plants / trees / shrubs flower; the flower of the generation;

flourish: roses / carnations / plants / children / businesses / concepts flourish;

prosper: a company / a business / an entrepreneur prospers

Complete the following sentences with verbs 'bloom', 'blossom', 'flower', 'flourish' or 'prosper' in the correct form.

1. If you sell for less than you buy, how can you expect your business to ?
2. Flowers of this kind only once in their lifetime.
3. Vegetarians are known to only on fruit, greens and nuts.
4. The oak trees have always well in this area.
5. In the 70's, many new housing estates were all over the country.
6. His private company keeps thanks to his great business skill.
7. My daffodils are not in full yet.
8. We may expect these buds to in a few days.
9. The first settlers found it hard to live in this hostile environment. Only the third generation started to when a century passed.
10. During the crisis period, neither private nor state enterprises
11. When the time comes, the valley is filled with marvellous colour and scent.
12. These plants are rather hardy. They will wherever you plant them.
13. If the state authorities were able to put the country's resources to good use, it would instead of falling into ruin.
14. It was an arid land but the pioneers' hard work made it
15. Romantic poetry in the country in the 17th century.

boil: to boil water; water boils; to bring water to the boil / boiling point;
to be immersed in boiling water

cook: to cook a meal; to cook food / meat / vegetables / soup; to cook the books;

Complete the following sentences with verbs 'boil' or 'cook' in the correct form.

1. I quite like especially in my free time.
2. Has the kettle yet? I'm dying for a cup of coffee.
3. Whenever he talks this nonsense, it makes my blood
4. My father likes eggs to be soft
5. After bringing half a litre of water to the, add the instant soup and let it simmer for a few minutes.
6. Turn off the gas when the liquid reaches point.
7. Yesterday, my wife a delicious meal for lunch.
8. I only eat potatoes if they are well
9. The milk over and the gas stove was ruined.
10. The company accountants were sentenced for the books.
11. Mr Tanner reached point when he found out how much money his wife had spent on clothes.
12. We don't at home. We prefer to eat out.
13. Water at one hundred degrees.
14. Every housewife has her own habits.
15. When the water, pour it in the glass.
16. Some scientists believe that potatoes are healthier than fried ones.
17. When, vegetables are said to lose a great amount of their vitamin content.
18. Jenny says she doesn't want to be a traditional housewife and so she refuses to food for her husband.
19. I never drink milk before it first.
20. Look at him. He's with anger. I wonder what's made him so mad.